Newsletter 5th May 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our first three Trustee Award winners received their trophies today from Mrs Boot, one of our Staff Trustees. This is the highest accolade a student can achieve at Cox Green School and huge congratulations must go to Joshua Santacaterina (7.3), Alya Aogut (7.3) and Joseph Subrai-Harmon (8.7). I am sure that they will continue to be role models for the rest of our student community.

Trustee Award Winners

I am delighted to award a number of students with their Gold Awards this week and it is wonderful to see that they are from a range of year groups! Hugely proud of Poppy Burrows, Timothy Chan in Year 7, Emilia Beasley, Ellie-Angel Constable, Niamh Collins, Brodie Allen, Amilee Bhargava in Year 8 and Ruth Blackwell, Chiedza Chademunhu and Lily Compton in Year 9. I hope they will all wear their awards with pride and continue to be so committed in displaying our Cox Green Values.

Well done to all the GCSE and A Level Art, Photography and Graphics students for completing their final pieces for their externally set assignment. They have all worked so hard, with amazing focus and we are very proud of what they have produced!

Thank you to our amazing PTFA for their efforts with the bake sale today. We will confirm how much money was raised when it has been counted!

As the weather is getting warmer, please do ensure that all students have a water bottle that can be refilled at break times.

Wishing you a happy Coronation Bank Holiday weekend.

Looking for Potential Rowers in and around Marlow

Marlow Rowing Club are looking to find young athletes who have what it takes to potentially make it into the GB Rowing Team, racing at the World Championships and Olympic Games.

There will be a free event on Saturday 3rd and Sunday 4th June

Come down to the club and experience the sport first hand. It will involve assessments to measure physical attributes and strength, as well as a short taster session on the water.

Height brings a big advantage in rowing, so ideally girls should be at least 176cm (5'9") and boys at least 188cm (6'2") tall.

No prior rowing experience is necessary.

They are looking for athletes who may currently be playing a different sport, such as rugby, netball, volleyball, basketball or swimming, but who have the right build and physicality to succeed at rowing.

Email ben.reed@britishrowing.org to book a place, copying in a parent or guardian.

(If you are interested but cannot make one of these days, please get in touch to arrange an alternative.)

British Rowing also has a Paralympic team. Some disabilities to qualify for this are obvious, such as those that fill the 'arms-only' and 'trunk-and-arms-only' categories, but there is a third 'whole body' category for which disabilities can easily be overlooked, such as visual impairment, nerve damage or fused bones.

If you think you might classify in this way, please contact Will Stockton (will.stockton@britishrowing.org) to discuss things further.
